

A medieval manuscript illustration of a fortified city. The city is built on a hill, featuring several prominent red towers and walls. A river flows through the foreground, with a bridge visible on the right. The style is characteristic of a medieval manuscript, with a focus on the city's fortifications and surrounding landscape.

Sabato 15 Settembre - Palazzo Oliveri

ore 18,30

*La guerra del Canavese: assetti
territoriali, episodi militari, esiti.*

Relatore:

Prof. Enrico LUSSO